

NEWSLETTER

1010 E. MAIN STREET

NOVEMBER

WAYNESBORO, PENNSYLVANIA

UPCOMING EVENTS*****

Nov. 20 6 to 8 pm, HOLIDAY SEASON OPEN HOUSE start the celebration of the of the holiday season with us during Renfrew's festive candlelight open house. We provide the music, refreshments, lovely atmosphere and friends for this memorable event. There will be lighted candles along the pathway and in every window of the museum. The area garden clubs have created superb holiday decorations for each room in the museum and have decorated a traditional cedar Christmas tree that will delight you. The OPEN HOUSE begins at the Visitors' Center with parking on our Welty Rd. lot only. There is no charge for the open house and a donation tray will be located at the exit from the museum. HOLIDAY MAGIC is waiting for you at Renfrew!!

Nov. 27 4 to 6 pm, A CANDLELIGHT TOUR and holiday decorations will be yours to enjoy the Sunday after Thanksgiving. Tours will be of the museum building only and there is no charge for admission. Lighted parking is on our lot off Welty Rd.

Nov. to Dec. 18 DOLLS from the collection of Carol Myers will be on exhibit in the museum gallery during regular visiting hours. Mrs. Myers has loaned the museum 27 dolls from her extensive collection.

NOTE: the MUSEUM CLOSSES for the 1983 season on Dec. 18th. We will again open on April 7th for the 1984 season with new exhibits, programs and activities.

THANKS*****

To the Reverend William Swisher and the Church of the Apostles, 336 Barnett Ave., Waynesboro, for allowing Renfrew to use church facilities for two programs.

To the Antietam Garden Club, the Blue Ridge Summit Garden Club, and the Toll Gate Garden Club for all their time and talent in decorating Renfrew for the holiday season.

To Undine Warner who coordinated garden clubs, Renfrew staff and volunteers in preparing Renfrew for the holiday season.

GIFTS TO RENFREW MUSEUM*****

PUBLIC SALE! notice announcing the Thursday, Feb. 29, 1912 sale of household goods and farm equipment of Benjamin P. Layman at the Dr. Strickler farm, one mile east of Waynesboro, along the C., G., & W., trolley, stop 14. The Strickler farm eventually became Renfrew Museum and Park. Gift of Mrs. Amos Shank, Waynesboro.

Renfrew received a major addition to its reference library with the gift of 27 books dealing with the conservation of museum objects. Gift of Mrs. Roger Munro, Keedysville, MD.